9. Workman's Compensation: Posts are reminded that, according to North Carolina state law, they must pay for Workman's Compensation if they have 3 or more legal employees, full time or part time.

10. Districts are in the chain of command. Changes to the 2008 National By-Laws put District Commanders firmly in the chain of command. Posts are to ask their District Commander for guidance or assistance before asking Department. District Commanders have the authority to visit any post meeting, announced or unannounced. They also have the authority to issue legal orders to posts, and the posts must obey or face possible consequences, such as the relief of the post commander and other officers by the Department Commander on the District Commander's recommendation for failure to do their duty. All policy issues will be sent from Department to District, and it is the District Commander's responsibility to obtain action from his/her posts. Financial issues will continue to be sent directly from the Department to the posts, and back from the posts to the Department (such as quartermaster bonds, canteen fees, delegate fees, etc).

11. Buddy Poppy shipping: Posts are reminded that shipping costs for Buddy Poppies from Department Headquarters is now $6.00 instead of $5.00. Also, poppies should be ordered 10-12 weeks out, as National's shipping times are that long now.

12. Quartermasters on the National Website: Post Quartermasters are reminded that they can go to www.vfw.org on the Internet, sign in as the Quartermaster, and have access to numerous data on programs, tools, resources, chairmen's guides, etc.

13. Quartermaster Bond: Quartermasters are reminded that they must be bonded no later than 31 August for all liquid assets of the post or district (checking, savings, CDs, stocks and bonds, etc). Property values are not included. A quartermaster bond packet is located on the Department Website at www.vfwnc.org under Tools, and paper bond packets will be taken to each of the August Conference training (Flying Squadron) sessions.
